NEW - RE Forum

Course Overview:

This termly forum is designed to ensure that teachers across EYFS, KS1 and KS2 are kept informed of the latest initiatives and understand best practice. Each session will include a training focus as well as an open forum for discussion.

Course Content:

- An update of key publications, research and guidance from the DfE and OFSTED.
- Discussion around the role of the subject leader in the management of RE.
- Exploration into statutory assessment at the end of EYFS, KS1 and KS2.
- Innovative ideas to take back to school to support staff CPD.
- As chance to share best practice in the teaching and leading of RE.

About Stacey Burman:

Stacey is an experienced teacher and leader and has worked across three Boroughs in both primary and secondary schools. Working with schools, faith communities, charities, museums and organisations, she has developed various projects, resources, initiatives and curricula. She is currently working with Bromley Council to revise the statutory RE Syllabus, providing a unique opportunity for members of this forum to help shape Religious Education across the Borough.
